

BULLETIN

NO.: 21-068
DATE: April 30, 2021
TO: All Personnel
FROM: Robert Logan, Deputy Chief, Special Operations
SUBJECT: Threats to San Diego Fire-Rescue Personnel

Special Operations has seen an increase in threats made to San Diego Fire-Rescue personnel. Below is information on the most recent threat and a reminder on the proper process of reporting suspicious activities or threats to personnel.

Potential Threat to San Diego Fire-Rescue Personnel:

- On December 7, 2020 Jonathan Michael Hatem (AKA Johnny Hatem) used his Instagram account to post a vague threat on the Anaheim Police Department's social media page.
- On April 3, 2021 Mr. Hatem used his Instagram account to post a vague threat toward San Diego Fire-Rescue's Station 17.
- Based on social media posts, law enforcement believes Mr. Hatem could be a danger to himself or others.
- Mr. Hatem allegedly threatened to use a knife to assault and vandalize the vehicle of an acquaintance.
- Mr. Hatem frequents the Ocean Beach and Pacific Beach areas, possibly driving a maroon dodge van.

Process for submitting a Suspicious Activity Report (SAR):

- Report any suspicious activity or threats immediately.
- To access the Suspicious Activity Report (SAR), please follow the following steps:
  - Access the SD LECC website at <https://www.sd-lecc.org>
  - Submit a SAR (Law Enforcement SAR Reporting)
  - Complete the Law Enforcement / Public Safety Reporting Lead Sheet
  - Click Submit SAR
  - Notify Battalion Chief Joe Scuri via the chain of command

If you see the above individual, please report to law enforcement immediately and notify Battalion Chief Joe Scuri via the chain of command. Battalion Chief Joe Scuri can be reached at (619) 980-0463 or jscuri@sandiego.gov with any questions or concerns.