C. Purpose

The purpose of the In-Service Training program is to provide the Department and its members with a regularly scheduled curriculum of continuing education classes.

This curriculum will provide the forum for classes mandated by various departmental areas of responsibility. It also provides the forum for other continuing education topics as the Training Division considers appropriate.

D. Attendance

In-Service Training attendance is mandatory for Battalion Chiefs and below. Battalion Chiefs may be excused from some sessions at the discretion of the Training and Safety Officer. Immediate supervisors will be directly responsible for the attendance of assigned personnel. Company Officers are to notify their supervisors anytime a scheduling conflict occurs or there is an expected absence.

Straight-day and light duty personnel must attend In-Service Training. Assigned supervisors will be responsible for their attendance. Every effort shall be made to attend on their assigned day. This will allow for unexpected events.

Personnel not assigned to a permanent station or In-Service Training group must monitor their own attendance. Relief personnel shall notify their supervisor at least two (2) shifts before the last In-Service Training session are presented on their division.

Battalion Chiefs are responsible for providing the necessary relief within their area of jurisdiction, to insure all personnel are given the opportunity to attend each training session.
