C. Unassigned Personnel Policies

1. Personnel who are permanently assigned to a division, but do not yet have a permanent or temp-perm (long-term relief) station assignment will be the first used to fill division vacancies.
2. Unassigned personnel will be used to fill any vacancies of eight hours or more in those rates. In some cases, this will require that they be assigned to work a partial shift within their rate at one station and then be unassigned at a different station for the remainder of the shift.
3. When making assignments, the staffing captain will give preference to the senior personnel in classification for short-term vacancies anticipated to last less than 18 shifts.
 - a. The staffing captain will contact all unassigned personnel on their division, starting with the most senior person in rate, offering the open position. The most senior relief person accepting the position will be assigned.

TITLE STAFFING MANUAL		DEPARTMENT F I R E - R E S C U E
SUBJECT GENERAL STAFFING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES	SECTION 01	PAGE 15 of 19	EFFECTIVE DATE May 5, 2023

- b. If the position is not accepted, the junior relief person will be assigned, except in those instances where an employee has a below standard performance evaluation, then he or she will be assigned to fill the vacancy for consistency in supervision and performance improvement.
 - c. If later a junior person is assigned to relief on the division, and a station opens for bid, the person who was assigned to the vacancy can bid to the open position. They cannot, however, leave the assignment and go to a relief status.
 - 4. Anticipated vacancies of 18 or more shifts must be filled via the station bid process detailed in Section 5 of this Staffing Manual.
 - 5. If after filling all vacancies, there are unassigned personnel who have not been used, they will be sent to appropriate stations where they can be safely accommodated as an unassigned crew member. This will require the availability of a seat-belted position on the apparatus and appropriate quarters. The staffing desk will maintain a list of stations that can accommodate unassigned personnel and the priority in which unassigned personnel are to be used.
 - 6. Until probationary firefighters have completed one year of service, they will remain "Relief Status" in between their training rotations into the training stations. The Training Division battalion chiefs will ensure their station assignments are rotated and approve any requests for probationary firefighters to fill open spots while in "Relief Status". This permits them to work with numerous captains so that a composite of probationary reports can be compiled.
 - D. OCA-Up Policies (Refer to Local 145 MOU) (See exception Section III.A.2.e until June 30, 2023)
 - 1. The Human Resources Section will be responsible for providing the battalion chiefs and staffing captains with a current list of personnel eligible to OCA to all positions below the rank of deputy chief.
 - 2. OCAs-up of eight or more hours will be limited to the following classifications and will be assigned by the staffing captain in accordance with the policies in Section II.A.
 - a. Battalion chief to deputy chief of operations
 - 3. OCAs of less than eight hours will be assigned by the battalion chief of the battalion in which the vacancy exists.
 - a. These OCAs will be assigned in rotational order based on seniority of personnel from the on-duty division who are on the current promotional lists.
 - 1) In the event there is no promotional list in effect, the battalion chief will continue to make assignments based on seniority in the class eligible to make the OCA.
 - b. The battalion chief may limit selection to those eligible candidates from the on-duty shift in the Battalion where the vacancy exists.

TITLE STAFFING MANUAL			DEPARTMENT F I R E-RESCUE
SUBJECT GENERAL STAFFING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES	SECTION 01	PAGE 16 of 19	EFFECTIVE DATE May 5, 2023

- c. If there are not enough available personnel from the on-duty shift, then personnel who are working overtime or DOT in the battalion and are on the promotional list will be assigned.
- d. In the event no eligible candidates are available from the on-duty shift in the battalion where the vacancy exists, the battalion chief may request a qualified relief from another battalion, beginning with regular duty candidates and moving to overtime and DOT candidates.
- E. Trading Fire Station Work Assignments (same shift)
 - 1. Personnel will be permitted to voluntarily trade assignments (i.e., regular duty, overtime, trade) occurring on the same day with one another by securing the agreement of their trade partner and emailing the staffing desk prior to the beginning of the shift for the planned exchange so that it will be properly reflected in TeleStaff.
 - a. Station exchanges of permanently assigned regular duty personnel are subject to approval through the chain of command.
 - b. Station exchanges with regular duty assigned probationary firefighters must be approved by the battalion chief responsible for the supervision of the PAT stations. If approved, the exchange will be forwarded to the staffing desk to make the appropriate changes in TeleStaff.
 - 2. Requests to exchange assignments for an open assignment can be made by email through the staffing desk.
 - a. These requests will only be fulfilled after the initial fill seven days out.
 - b. If the request is made between 1630 to 1800 hours, when the computer is filling vacancies, it will be postponed until after this timeframe.
 - 1) If during this time frame the request was filled with other personnel by the computer with other personnel, the employee may contact that individual to trade station assignments. The staffing desk can no longer honor your request.

IV. PERSONNEL STAFFING

A. Consecutive Hours Worked

Numerous studies and research efforts indicate that acute and chronic poor sleep quality and quantity significantly impairs people both physically and mentally. Sleep deprivation can affect decision-making skills, judgment, and coordination. Long-term sleep deprivation has also been linked to serious health conditions such as hypertension, cardiovascular disease, cancer, and mental health disorders.

Due to the critical role that firefighters serve in the community and an obligation to meet minimum staffing levels, firefighters have significant exposure to sleep deprivation and cumulative fatigue. While this exposure cannot be eliminated, it is the desire of the Fire Chief and Local 145 to limit exposure when and where possible to reduce risk.

TITLE STAFFING MANUAL			DEPARTMENT F I R E-RESCUE
SUBJECT GENERAL STAFFING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES	SECTION 01	PAGE 17 of 19	EFFECTIVE DATE May 5, 2023

This policy establishes guidelines relating to the maximum number of consecutive hours an employee on the San Diego Fire-Rescue Department can work before a rest period is required. The intent of the policy is to limit the consecutive hours worked, including regular duty, trades, administrative assignments, overtime, or mandatory callback, without a minimum of a 24 hours off-duty (not at work) rest break under usual staffing patterns.

1. Employees maintain their rights to request leave under city policy or state of federal law for qualifying events. Any leave of less than 12 hours will be considered as hours worked within the Staffing Policy Manual, section IV.A.1. When an employee reaches 96 consecutive hours of work, 24 hours of rest will be required under usual staffing patterns.
2. Employees may voluntarily work greater than 96 hours in such cases when the voluntary work would prevent a mandatory callback assignment, provided that:
 - a. Employees acknowledge that they are mentally and physically capable to perform all required duties competently and efficiently.
 - b. Supervisors shall have the authority to deny voluntary work, that is beyond 96 consecutive hours, for any employee under their command for reasonable cause. The on-duty Shift Commander shall have final authority for resolution of any disagreement which arises under this provision.
3. The fire chief or designee has the discretion to extend this 96 consecutive hour timeframe due to disaster situations, need for strike teams, or other operational circumstances that warrant immediate coverage. If this fire chief discretion is used, the 96-hour maximum consecutive hours worked rule will be suspended and employees may be required to work beyond 96 consecutive hours.
4. Every effort will be made to exercise this suspension as early as possible and notify employees when a suspension is predictable.
5. Strike Team - Personnel returning from a strike team deployment after 96-consecutive hours or more will not be permitted to work until meeting the minimum 24-consecutive hour off-duty rest period in accordance with Article 20E of Local 145 Memorandum of Understanding
 - a. If personnel on a strike team return from deployment of 96 hours or more on their regular duty day, they will be placed on paid administrative leave (SA) for the remainder of their regular duty day and will not be required to use their annual leave to receive the 24-consecutive rest hours.
 - b. If personnel on a strike team return from a deployment of 96 hours or more the day before their regular duty day, but will not receive 24-consecutive hours of rest prior to the start of their next shift after deployment, they will be placed on paid administrative leave (SA) until they do reach the 24-hour consecutive rest hours and will not be required to use their annual leave.

- 1) The SA will be a minimum of 8 hours off.
- 2) If the 24-hour rest period would end beyond 8 PM of their scheduled workday, the employee will remain on SA for the remainder of the shift.
- c. If personnel return from a strike team assignment prior to 8 AM the day prior to a regularly scheduled shift, the employee will report to work their next shift at the normal start time.
6. It is the employee's responsibility to schedule their additional work hours (including trades and voluntary overtime) in a manner that does not violate this policy and allows the employee to be available and eligible to work their regularly assigned shifts. Failure to plan accordingly may require the employee to use leave (annual or compensatory) if they are unable to work their regular shift because of violation of this policy.
7. All leave statuses (AL, CD, DL, etc.) when logged into TeleStaff will be locked and unable to be removed by the employee seven days out from a date on the calendar. Requested changes must be made by phone call or email to the staffing desk. This is to ensure compliance with the 96-consecutive hour rule.
8. In the event an employee would have to pass-up a mandatory shift due to this policy, he/she will not be charged with a mandatory refusal nor will the employee receive credit for a mandatory shift.
 - a. However, it will be the individual employee's responsibility to make the deputy chief of operations aware via e-mail through the chain of command of his/her conflict with this policy when called for a mandatory shift.
